LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF GOA

No. 14

MONDAY, 14 NOVEMBER, 2022

CORRIGENDUM

The following Corrigendum is issued to the Bulletin Part-I No. 13 dated Friday the 22nd July, 2022:-

At Serial No. 3 titled 'Zero Hour Mentions' of the Bulletin Part-I No. 13 dated Friday, the 22nd July, 2022, the following Zero Hour Mention, tabled by Shri Yuri Alemao, MLA, is inserted after sub-serial No. "10", as sub-serial No. "11".

ZERO HOUR MENTION

(11) Shri Yuri Alemao, MLA, made a mention about the concern in the minds of the people to the prevalence of unjust customs of widow discrimination, widow abuse and widow isolation in the State. Though there are no registered complaints, the isolation, discrimination and abuse is taken for granted as part of customs, traditions, religious or social practices. A few Village Panchayats in Goa have taken resolutions against such outdated and inhuman customs stating that the widows should be treated on par with married women. The steps be taken in co-ordination with Department of Panchayats and Goa State Women's Commission to convene Gram Sabhas of Village Panchayats to express solidarity with widows and boost the confidence of all women against such obsolete and archaic practices and mind set prevailing in the community.
